It is not a very melanchely duty to ansunce that "Apolio" at the Casino has at last been shelved, and it is a positive pleasure to welcome the revival of "The Grand Dark figured China silks for short jaunts are Duchess" that was made last night. The traply made with a fan back, plain or deft and ingenious business manager, Charles "broken" front, high bleeves and coat or Barton, has woven a pretty little legend to the effect that Miss Russell fusisted upon this revival, and instructes that "Apollo" was withdrawn with rejuctance. "The Grand Duchess" needs no such excuses. It may at once be said that the performance last night was watched with a great deal of pleasure and that, from a spectacular point of view, the Casino has done nobly. The centre of attraction was, of course, Miss Russell. She was in excellent voice, and her costumes were positively dazzling. Nobody expects Misa Russell to act; in fact, it would be a surprise. if she did, and surprises in this warm weather are not agreeable. So the statuesque Lillian walked very prettily through her part, exerting herself vecally as much as was necessary. Her rendering of the charming air "Say to Him" was faultless; her interpretation of the sparkling " I Dote on the Military" lacked fire and chie. Miss Grace Golden as Wanda distinguished herself and saug very agreeably, and Ferdinand Schuetz made a highly acceptable Fritz. Mr. Schuetz can act, which fact will undoubtedly prove an obstacle in the fact will undoubtenly proven to make it was of his success in English comic opera, where acting is comparatively disregarded.
